To Whom It May Concern:

AHA Services has maintained an endorsement relationship with The MHA Group since 1990. We first began our relationship with an endorsement of the Merritt, Hawkins Physician Recruiting Firm. Over the years, we have expanded our endorsement relationship to include their entire family of companies including: Merritt, Hawkins & Associates, Staff Care, Allied Consulting, Med Travelers, and American Medical Consulting.

MHA has always been very professional to work with. They work really hard to satisfy and meet the needs of the customer. Even when there are disagreements, they go above and beyond the call of duty to make certain that clients are treated fairly and justly.

The MHA Group has always been very quick to answer any questions that our hospitals have. MHA provides us with all types of informative and current information that is very useful to the Arkansas hospitals. When a hospital calls us with a question we know that we can rely upon MHA to help us research and provide guidance.

The MHA Group family of companies has been a valuable asset to AHA Services and to the Arkansas Hospitals.

Sincerely,

Tina Creel
Vice President
